

The CMA is pleased to present

The Sixth Annual CMA Shipping Job Fair

- Where: Hilton Stamford Hotel, First Stamford Place, Stamford, Connecticut
THE ASPEN Rooms & Foyer
- When: Tuesday, March 22, 2011
5:30 – 7:30 pm
- Who: Maritime-oriented students, companies, and professionals seeking growth
- What: A venue for maritime companies to meet, mingle and discuss with prospective employees ranging from students to experienced professionals in conjunction with a prestigious international industry event.

Companies:

Register early as space is limited! Registration includes a table in The Aspen Rooms, which can be used for a display, for passing out company materials, for collecting resumes, and as a center point for company representatives to meet prospective applicants.

We anticipate well in excess of two hundred undergraduate and graduate students drawn largely from tri-state area and New England maritime academies, in addition to a contingent of the thousands of industry professionals in attendance at Shipping 2011 that wish to explore opportunities for personal growth.

Light refreshments will also be available. The fee for a table top display is $500. To register and to secure your space, please contact Lorraine Parsons by phone at +1.203.406.0109, ext. 3717 or email at conferences@cmaconnect.com.

Students:

Typically schools hold job fairs to try to draw prospective hirers into meeting students preparing to graduate. By holding the fair in conjunction with Shipping 2011, the CMA seeks to reverse that, inviting students to the venue where the hirers are congregating.

Registration for students is FREE. But an RSVP is a must! Please contact Lorraine Parsons at +1 203.406.0109, ext. 3717 or by email at conferences@cmaconnect.com. A few maritime schools and student groups are organizing resume books, so we encourage you to be in touch with the appropriate organizations at your school about the event as well.

Professionals Attending Shipping 2011:

Please feel free to stop by the event during Tuesday's cocktail reception.
